

SCDA FLOWER SHOW POLICIES

August 6, 2004

1. No applications accepted without payment attached
2. Only the items listed on the application are allowed for sale in the booth.
3. Vendors or their representatives must remain in place for the entire show. Vendors may not arrive late or leave early.
4. Vendors may not assign or sublet spaces.
5. Booth must be clean at all times.
6. No smoking in booth spaces.
7. Firearms, provocative materials, tobacco-drug paraphernalia, alcoholic beverages, foods other than those listed on the application, live animals, or any other goods that management deems inappropriate for sale on the days of the event will not be allowed.
8. Products offered for sale must be top quality. Plant producers may only offer to sell plants that are free of pests, funguses and other disease, and such plant producers shall be held responsible for adhering to all regulations and rules enforced by the Clemson inspectors from the Plant Industry Division.
9. Goods for sale will be limited to the purchase space area unless additional or alternative space is approved by management personnel.
10. Vendors are responsible for applicable licensing and taxes related to the sale of their products and services.
11. Vendors are responsible for insuring their own exhibits, personnel, display and materials from any damage or loss through theft, fire, accident, weather or any other cause.
12. Any matters not specifically addressed herein or in any subsequent flower show guide are subject to the decision of the management personnel, and its decision on any matters which may arrive hereunder shall be final.
13. Management personnel reserve the right to make changes, amendments, and additions to these rules and regulations as it considers necessary for the good of the event.

14. Vendors must adhere to the rules and regulations specific to the facility hosting the flower show event. (i.e. the rules and regulations of the S.C. State Farmers Market regarding parking policies.)
15. In the event that a Vendor is found to be in violation of these policies, management personnel shall have the authority to revoke the rights and privileges of the Vendor in the flower show, including the authority to remove the vendor from the exhibition space, and the management shall have the authority to refuse or deny the application of that same Vendor in the following year(s).